Here's how you can place an order for the latest United Way 2-1-1 human and social services directory

We're sending this notice to all of our friends who have informed us they wanted to purchase a copy of the latest United Way 2-1-1 Directory of Human Services. If you would like a copy, please fill in the order form on the back of this page and mail it to us. If you want to purchase 10 or more, quantity discounts are available.

United Way 2-1-1's Directory of Human Services – more than 400 pages – is published as the printed component of the computerized information and referral resource system operated by the United Way of Northeast Florida. United Way 2-1-1 is a non-profit, full-service call center operating 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Friendly, professionally trained staff, who have a database of community services at their fingertips, answer a wide range of calls and make appropriate referrals. Last year, United Way 2-1-1 answered more than 81,000 calls.

United Way 2-1-1 provides information and referral for:

- Emergency Financial Assistance
- Income Tax Questions (Real $ense Prosperity Program)
- Foreclosures
- Adult, Child & Family Services
- Victims of Abuse or Crime
- Child, Adolescent and Adult Mental Health & Substance Abuse
- Food, Shelter & Clothing
- Support Groups & People With Disabilities
- Special Transportation Needs
- HIV / AIDS Information & Testing
- Suicide Prevention & Intervention Helpline

Every effort is made to identify human services agencies and organizations operating programs that desire to be included and that meet the inclusion criteria from the 9-county region. Inclusion of an organization does not imply an endorsement, nor does omission imply disapproval. The information about the agencies is based on data provided by the agency itself. 2-1-1 service began in the Jacksonville calling area in 2002 and quickly expanded to 10 counties throughout Northeast Florida.

United Way 2-1-1 is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by dialing 2-1-1 or 632-0600.
